

LAST EDITION.

(COMPLETE MARKET REPORTS.)

Regular Circulation of the
POST-DISPATCH,
Sunday, Nov. 28,
101,805 COPIES.

Gain over Nov. 21, 728 Copies.
Gain over June 27, 39,610 Copies.

MARK TWAIN DESCRIBES THE RIOT IN THE REICHSRATH.

"A South African Thunder Storm is Solid Silence Compared to It."

MARK TWAIN.

It Is a Page of History and Belongs Among the World's Memorable Days.

Mark Twain (Samuel L. Clemens), the American humorist, was a witness of the riotous scenes in the Austrian Reichsrath. He cables to the Post-Dispatch an interesting account of the tumult. According to Vienna dispatches published in this country last Saturday, Mr. Clemens was forcibly ejected from the Chamber and received a severe blow to hasten his exit. He makes no mention of this incident, and it probably did not take place.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.
Copyright by the Press Publishing Company, 1897.

VIENNA, Nov. 29.—In the Austrian House of Deputies Thanksgiving Day, in the midst of a deafening tumult, I saw a motion read which nobody heard and passed by nobody knows whom—for, indeed, it was not passed at all. It aimed at the obstructionists and placed autocratic powers in the hands of the President of the Parliament. This was a victory for the Government, but was unlawfully won and was a simple usurpation.

Naturally Saturday's session would be historical. I went early, arriving when the house was empty. In half an hour two or three hundred members were present on the floor and the galleries were packed. I was in a gallery exactly opposite the President's tribune and had a perfect view. There was not much noise then, but the atmosphere was charged with suspense and expectancy. All the vast house was holding its breath. A long wait, then a stir, a craning of necks, and at a door far to the right the President and Vice-Presidents entered.

The house rose and a hurricane of insults and execrations burst from the opposition and blew them to their places. The Right answered back and both sides roared and shouted and stormed.

Two dozen Socialists stood in a body below the ministerial desks, shouting up at the President and shook their fists furiously at him. He addressed some words to the house—at least one could see his lips move—and he spread his large hands deprecatingly over his breast. If he is a tyrant, he has some beseeching, persuasive gestures not seen elsewhere but among the angels. That holy gesture seemed to maden the group of Socialists.

All at once they plunged over the barriers and up through the ministerial desks and benches.

One in a red cravat reached up and snatched the President's papers. Another seized his bell. In a moment they were fighting and struggling with uniformed servants of the house, who ejected them.

At the same time others of their group stormed up the side of the tribune, drove out the President and Vice-President and followed them across the floor, hammering the latter with their fists. But I saw no blow actually reach the President.

The Socialists came back, occupied the President's tribune and held it like a fort.

The man in the red cravat gathered up an armful of the President's papers and threw them over the front in a sort of snow storm.

Meantime the whole house was howling, yelling and banging on the desks, a South African thunder storm being solid silence compared to it. "Rascals," "Scoundrels," these and less delicate epithets filled the air.

All of a sudden that distant door opened and down the floor of the brilliant and superb chamber came drifting the spectacle and flash of sixty spiked helmets. It was the most thrilling theatrical surprise I ever saw. I would not have missed it for the succession to the throne. Moreover, it was history, and belongs among the world's memorable days. This force was received with a tempest of execrations from the one party and with victory notes from the other; yet it was a heavy defeat for all concerned.

The handsome officer in command cared nothing for the reception. He went up into the tribune and requested the Socialist garrison to retire. They declined. Then he stepped aside and his men pulled, hauled and dragged the fighting, struggling garrison down from their fort and out of the door and the amazing drama was finished.

THE CABINET HAS RESIGNED.
And the Reichsrath Is Dissolved Until Further Notice.

VIENNA, Nov. 29.—Vienna has been on the verge of revolution for several days. Riotous public meetings have been held and the palace has been closely guarded for fear of violence. Finally it became evident that the Cabinet would have to retire. Their resignations were submitted to the Emperor and he reluctantly accepted them. Count Badeni said to the Emperor: "Your Majesty, I cannot take the responsibility. Bloodshed will ensue if I remain in office."

The Emperor has intrusted Baron Gauthsch, who is a member of the Public Council, with the task of forming a new Cabinet. Baron Gauthsch is a Frankenthaler in a German International. He is a moderate conservative politician, popular with all parties in Austria, as well as among the Hungarians. His appointment is to make a good impression.

Emperor Francis Joseph addressed an autograph letter to Count Badeni, decreeing the disbandment of the Reichsrath until further orders.

During the assembling of the Reichsrath

THE ONLY ST. LOUIS EVENING PAPER WITH THE ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

CIRCULATION SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1897.

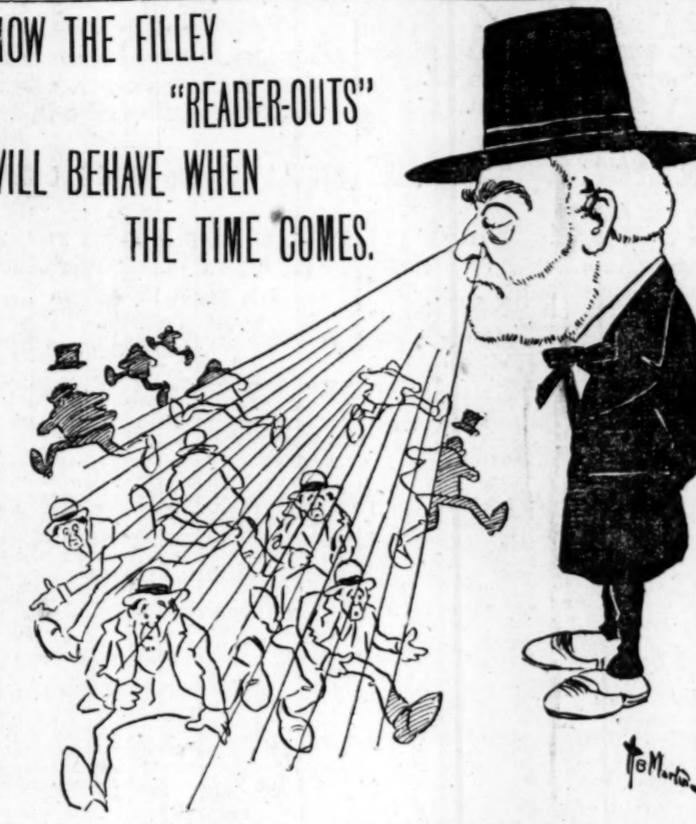

101,805.

VOL. 49, NO. 112.

MONDAY EVENING—ST. LOUIS—NOVEMBER 29, 1897.

PRICE | In St. Louis, One Cent.
Outside St. Louis, Two Cents.

HOW THE FILLEY "READER-OUTS" WILL BEHAVE WHEN THE TIME COMES.

"Finally sixty spiked helmets flashed through a distant door. It was the most thrilling theatrical surprise I ever saw. I would not have missed it for the succession to the throne."

They talk of ousting Filley and of throwing him down; They say he's boss no longer of the country, State and town; They say he isn't in it, since he took to writing roasts Of high and mighty leaders of the Grand Old Party's hosts.

The Sage of Beaumont Street, they cry, has surely gone stark mad, Or he would never have taken up typewriting as a fad, Nor would he vent his spleen upon the men who fought and bled beneath the Filley banner, ere its glorious reign was dead.

They talk of downing Chauncey, and of giving him the run, But when the time arrives to act, before the deed is done, When Filley rises in the hall with his "Mester Chai-lman!" cry, His enemies will cower like slaves before his basilisk eye.

THE ENGLISH COAST SWEEP BY A TERRIFIC GALE.

Many Ships Are Known to Have Foundered and Great Loss of Life Is Feared.

MORE THAN TWENTY BODIES RECOVERED.

Vessels Reported Ashore on Every Part of the Coast and Passage Across the Channel Mostly Suspended.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The gale which swept the English coasts yesterday, doing damage at Holy and other places, raged all night long, and had not abated in this morning when it amounted almost to a cyclone in many places, and was accompanied by snow and hail. A long list of fatalities, wrecks and damage to property has been received. All the coast towns have suffered and a score of bodies have been washed ashore. Falling walls and flying debris have added to the loss of life. Vessels are reported on shore on every part of the coast, and many ships are known to have foundered with the probable loss of all hands. There is much wreckage about the Goodwin Sands. At Lowestoft, Yarmouth and elsewhere the sea has flooded the quays and neighborhoods, washing away the esplanades and doing other serious damage. The sea wall at Scarborough has been washed away and the passenger and mail services across the channel have been mostly suspended.

Two Sailors Killed.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 29.—The British steamer Kensington, Capt. Fraggett, arrived from London, after a tempestuous voyage that lasted all the way to the Delaware Capes. Her decks were broken, bridge smashed, stanchions bent and twisted, and her entire cargo of thirty drums of naphtha and a large quantity of phosphorus washed overboard. The vessel had scarcely run when it began to leak. On the 15th the storm was so great that it had to be taken to the Delaware Capes. The ship was off Scilly Island. The seas were washing completely over her, and the drums of naphtha, each weighing half a ton, had broken loose, and the crew had to work the rags and break them to pieces. Until the Delaware Capes were reached no pleasant weather was experienced.

Temptuous Voyage.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 29.—The British steamer Kensington, Capt. Fraggett, arrived from London, after a tempestuous voyage that lasted all the way to the Delaware Capes. Her decks were broken, bridge smashed, stanchions bent and twisted, and her entire cargo of thirty drums of naphtha and a large quantity of phosphorus washed overboard. The vessel had scarcely run when it began to leak. On the 15th the storm was so great that it had to be taken to the Delaware Capes. The ship was off Scilly Island. The seas were washing completely over her, and the drums of naphtha, each weighing half a ton, had broken loose, and the crew had to work the rags and break them to pieces. Until the Delaware Capes were reached no pleasant weather was experienced.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 29.—Belle Boyd, the woman who has declared the most exciting taking part in the late war, for the Confederacy, is under arrest here, charged with attempting to avoid payment of a board bill. She lectured here last week to a small audience. In the police court this morning her trial was continued until Wednesday.

MORE VICTIMS OF GRAHAM.

Gold Brick Men Worked 'Em in Iowa and Mississippi.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

KEOKUK, Io., Nov. 29.—M. W. Herrick, a Monticello, Io., lawyer, writes that Robert Clark, a wealthy retired farmer, was defrauded by Graham, the gold brick dealer, in the same manner as were Bowles of Palmyra and Bolin of DuQuoin, Ill. He never before divulged the fact until reading the case here and is now determined to prosecute. J. F. Llewellyn also wants him held until a friend from Mississippi who wants to prosecute Graham can be summoned.

Herr Clark was subsequently discharged from custody.

The University has been ordered closed for two days, as the students have been warned that it will close permanently if their demonstrations continue.

There is great rejoicing among the people of the city, as the Government has agreed to make a general amnesty.

Emperor Francis Joseph addressed an autograph letter to Count Badeni, decreeing an understanding between the German and Czech leaders on the language question.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 29.—James Smith and Chris Merry, accused of murdering Mrs. Merry at Chicago, are believed to have been arrested in the extreme west. Tuesday, fair and not so cold.

THE WEATHER FORECAST.

FAIR—CONTINUED FAIR.

For St. Louis and vicinity, fair, continued cold Monday night; fair with slowly rising temperature.

For Missouri—Fair Monday night and Tuesday night, cooler in southeast portion of the state.

For Illinois—Fair Monday night, with col-

BITTEN BY A MAD DOG.

John Sevon's Hand Gnawed
by the Animal.

PANIC ON MAIN STREET.

THE BRUTE CAUSED A STAMPEDE
AND ONE MAN PROVED A VICTIM.

TREATED AT THE DISPENSARY.

Dr. Kearney Cauterized the Wound and Told the Patient If Infiam-mation Set in Amputation
Would Be Necessary.

A big cur dog, snapping and snarling, his tongue protruding and froth coming from his mouth as he zigzagged from one side of the street to the other, terrorized persons in the vicinity of Levee and Main streets soon after 7 o'clock Monday.

Men, women and children ran indoors as they saw the brute coming, and hundreds of voices called loudly for a policeman or someone to shoot the animal.

John Sevon, a laborer, living at 601 South Main street, heard the warning voices and looked back to see the cur coming out of his house. He started to run, but the brute seized him by the right hand. He turned and a desperate fight followed. The toe of his heavy shoe almost shattered the dog's ribs, yet the dog held on.

Several men ran up with sticks and beat the animal away. Biting right and left the dog put his adversaries to flight and went yelping down the street.

What became of the animal Sevon did not stay to see, but hastened to the City Dispensary. Dr. Kearney cauterized the maimed hand and advised Sevon that if inflammation set in despite the strong antiseptics he should not hesitate to have the hand amputated, as the dog certainly had.

TALKS OF A FROG TRUST.

Charles C. Sprague's Plan for Using Old Quarry Ponds.

"I'm opposed to trusts in a general way," said Charles C. Sprague, "but I've a good mind to form a frog trust right here in St. Louis."

"Sure thing. Have you never noticed the quarry ponds in this town actually going to waste?"

"There are a few of them."

"A few! I should say there were. And not one earns its salt. What I propose to do is to let them for a month, fence them in with high boards, and stick them full of bullfrogs and fat them for the market. There's a Klondike in it and no chance to contract cold feet."

SYDNEY JAMES LOW COMING.

Retiring London Editor to Make a
Tour of the World.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Mr. Sydney James Low, the retiring editor of the St. James Gazette, who was entertained at dinner on Saturday last by the most representative gathering of English newspaper men that has been seen in recent years, starts for America in January on a tour of the world. Among the givers of the dinner, in addition to members of the staffs of all the prominent newspapers, were Rowland Keightley, George Fox, Thomas A. Guthrie, and Wm. Ernest Henley, all of whom have been contributors to the St. James Gazette. Alfred Austin, the poet laureate, sent a poem.

FLANAGAN AND ELSNER.

They Make a General Denial of the Bribery Charges.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 29.—Deputy Sheriff Fred Clegg, who was taken this morning from Carthage with John H. Flanagan, Flanagan and Elsner, will be arraigned in the Circuit Court here at 2 o'clock this afternoon. They make a general denial of the charges connecting them with attempted bribery, and will try to prove their innocence.

FIVE YEARS FOR BIG HAWLEY.

The Notorious Blackmailer and Card Sharp Sentenced.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—William C. Woodward, alias "Big Hawley," who last week was convicted of attempted blackmail on Samuel W. Brigham, was sentenced to day for five years' imprisonment. "Big Hawley" was known principally under the alias of Hon. Lionel Mulligan. He has been a notorious knave in almost every country of the earth, and probably is the most acute card sharper living.

SUICIDE OF A YOUNG GIRL.

Took Morphine for Unknown Cause and Died.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MARSHALL, Ill., Nov. 29.—Miss Pearl Carter, the 12-year-old stepdaughter of A. S. Duckworth of Perryville, committed suicide here yesterday by taking morphine.

Her death was attributed to the fact that she had been ill for some time past.

At Perryville she was a sharpshooter.

Carter was a favorite with the boys.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth.

FIGHT ON THE THEATER TRUST HAS OPENED IN NEW YORK.

United States Marshals Will Run the Casino Performance To-Night.

Six Theatrical Speculators Have Combined and Acquired Control of the Principal Theaters and Many of the Leading Actors and Dramatic Attractions of the United States.

Nat Goodwin Leads a Revolt of the Stars Against the Gigantic Combine, and the Question Is Now in the Courts.

Spec to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—United States Marshals will run the control of the Casino tonight, and for the first time in American history, a theatrical performance will be given under Government guardianship. It is the beginning of a bitter fight against the theatrical trust, of which the new Century and the Olympia of St. Louis are members.

Six theatrical speculators have combined and have acquired control of the principal theaters and many of the leading actors and dramatic attractions of the United States. They own, or operate, fifty of the big theaters; they control the bookings of seventeen other theaters. Outside of this "theatrical trust" there are only about seventeen important theaters and about four leading acting troupes.

No theatrical manager who refuses to submit to the dictation of these six men can float. No star who defies them can possibly get advantageous terms for a twenty-week tour in a season of forty weeks.

The trust is made up of Charles Frohman, Al Hayman, T. Fred Nixon, Abraham Erlanger of New York and Marc Klaw of Louisville and New York.

Charles Frohman is the Napoleon of the trust. He produces 50 per cent of all the good attractions that are put on the shrewd, calculating business manager, Nixon and Zimmerman are the speculative capitalists in the schools. Klaw and Erlanger are book agents.

Al Hayman and Abraham Erlanger are credited with organizing the trust. They were the first to enter into an agreement to work together and then announced to the world that they were the leaders of the Casino, by which the opera company agreed to produce at the Caso no theater the comic operas in a period of four weeks, beginning on Nov. 29.

At the time for the production of the opera approached the trust heard of the transaction and sent a telegram to Judge Lueder, who was present the Fifth Avenue Opera Company from New York, and after it had been received, it was decided to postpone the opening of the trust, or they would be shut out if they played in the theater. The trust, however, did send into town counter attractions to split up business.

Nat Goodwin, the most popular of stars, William Wilson, Francis Wilson, the Bostonians, Fanny Davenport, Minnie Maddern Fiske and many others, Goodwin was won over to a long engagement at the Knickerbocker in this city, and now Wilson, Mrs. Louise James A. Herne, Mrs. Wilson and Frank Daniels are the only independent stars in the theater. There are nine semi-independent stars, who while they play some of the trust's theaters, have no control over their control. They are Willard Mantell, May Irwin, Mansfield, James O'Neill, Margaret Mather, James Otis Skinner and Oliver Byron.

Every other reputable high-class company is in the trust.

The trust has theaters in Brooklyn, Baltimore, Washington, St. Louis, Cleveland, Denver, Toledo, Buffalo, Salt Lake City, Denver, Omaha, Louisville and Newark. In St. Louis the Fourteenth Street Theater is controlled by the trust, and the opening of the theater of the United States officers is made necessary that the trust shall not destroy the venture represented by the opening of the theater, running at the Casino Theater in this city.

Upon a motion made Saturday before Judge Stevenson, the trial of the case for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe, before Mr. Howe began his opening address, John Gotha, the bar, was rebuked.

Mr. Howe asked him if he had ever been an inmate of an inebriate asylum at Fort Hamilton. The witness said: "No." Mr. Howe then asked him if he knew the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

Mr. Howe requested the court to dismiss the case, and the court first directed the evidence which the defense would introduce would be unfit for polite ears. The result was that only three women were among the spectators when Judge Maddox reopened court for the trial of the alleged murderer of Goldensuppe.

Mr. Howe then began his address with a dramatic speech, and then directed the court to a rule of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson to issue no warrants in such cases unless it can be shown that the little victim has actually suffered physically from the assault, as well as mentally.

In his office of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson, he told the functions of judge and jury, and his refusal to act in cases like Blines' results in the cult of the police, the public, the press and the power to send a man to the Work-house for one year at the limit.

"That is all I want of you," said the big lawyer; and Gotha left the room.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

RIGHT FROM HURST.

A PERSONAL TELEGRAM WAS RECEIVED EARLY THIS MORNING.

WILL NOT MANAGE THE BROWNS

He Says He Has Not Signed With St. Louis, Nor Received an Offer From Vandy.

Early Saturday morning, long before the receipt of the open letter from Vandy, and with a view to solving a question of vital importance to the vast army of base ball clubs in St. Louis, the Post-Dispatch sent a telegram to Tim Hurst at Buffalo and asked him this question:

"Have you signed with Vandy to manage the St. Louis Browns next year? Answer quick."

Hurst replied as follows:

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 28.
Editor Post-Dispatch, St. Louis, Mo.:
I have not signed with St. Louis, nor have I received any offer from Mr. Vandy.

TIM HURST.

Very recently all sorts of reports have appeared in the St. Louis newspapers relative to Tim Hurst, the famous League umpire.

"There has been stated in a dozen different ways that Hurst has signed with Vandy to manage the St. Louis Browns next year.

Vandy was quoted as saying that Hurst would be manager of next year's team and that he would not be manager.

Yesterday in statement over his own signature Vandy said:

"Another, and most important point, is that to the club management I believe that all of our troubles will come from poor field management, and the coming year we will mark a radical change in this direction."

"A manager will be secured who has ability, knowledge, and tact, who will guide the club through tactical difficulties and lead them along the paths of robbery and discipline, and finally reach a position of success. And, you may say, 'Tim Hurst will instantly perceive his entire fitness for St. Louis managerial responsibilities.' But, my dear sir, he has not been looking long for, and have at last found, Mr. Hurst will be manager in all the short space of time that it is from here to there he pleases, and that if Vandy readily lets him to manage the St. Louis club next year he had better get after him in a hurry."

NEW YORK SIX-DAY RACE.

All the Crack Bicyclists of the World Will Take Part in It.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The entry list for the six-day bicycle race, to begin in Madison Square Garden next Sunday night, is now complete. All the fast riders of the world are to take part, and an effort will be made to break Hale's record of 1,910 miles made in 19 days. The leading men will face the starters following to-morrow night.

Teddy Hale, Ireland; John S. Rice, Wilkes-Barre; Albin Schook, Brooklyn; Gaston Riviere, Paris; Fred W. Schinnerer, Chicago; A. Etienne Stephane, Paris; Thos. A. Harrahan, Boston; Oscar O'Neill, New York; M. H. Doherty, Dublin; E. G. Smith, Boston; Rudolph Gaertner, Austria; James Busted, Jersey City; Edward Beacom, New York; G. Emilie Riverine, Newark; Chas. A. Armstrong, New York; Fred Foster, New York; Frank Walker, New York; Harry W. Pierce, Canada; L. M. Moore, New York; Andrew Johnson, Long Island; Franklin Albert, New York; Peter Golden, New York; Harry B. Dick, New York; George C. H. Jones, New York; J. King, Bloomfield; Albert Winterman, Brooklyn; J. F. E. Gray, New York; W. Morris, Joseph, E. G. Smith, Saratoga; Joseph E. G. Smith, New York; Stephan Fallon, Jersey City; John Schlesinger, New York; Harley Davison, Canada; Fred Tamm, New York; Gen. Cartwright, England, and Austin M. Luce, Buffalo.

Sporting Notes.

To-morrow Ryan and Steet.

The College Foot Ball League is booming.

The Meachams are playing great foot ball.

Jake Bone has gone hunting over in Illinois.

To-night the ladies' bicycle meet at the Coliseum.

The Pullmans were pif for the St. Louis foot ball teams.

Chester Cudler's hawks is at West Baden Springs, Ind., raising a ruckus.

To-night the fair Cyclones commence their six-day race at the Coliseum.

Vandy promises that Bug Halliday is coming to St. Louis. Well, there is lots room here.

Next Sunday night the big six-day bicycle race starts in Madison Square Garden, New York.

The People of Baltimore is coming to St. Louis to play first. Well, that is the very best of news.

The Baltimoreans defeated the Reliance team at San Francisco yesterday by the long score of 12 to 2.

The Browns and the Kansas Citys will play a series of games at Sportsman's Park early in the spring.

There is talk of sending a team of St. Louis ball players to the big battle for the indoor championship there.

Foster Bros. did not do bad things so "soft" as New Haven, but they got old Giemeyne over the plate on many occasions.

Bretton, Cooke, Wender, Gering, Billy, Clifford and other professionals saw yesterday's foot ball game at Sportsman's Park.

Cappes have signed G. M. Duff late of the Cycling Club; Otto Seeger and Billy Nolin. The club has released Jack Coburn, Alex. Morrison, William Dale, Jack Martin and J. Smith.

The St. Louis huntmen, Henry Roewe, Sr., Prof. Joseph Dreher and Henry Roewe, Jr., returned yesterday from a hunting trip through Arkansas, in which they killed several deer.

Cleveland's Secretary of the Treasury, while at Lexington, Ky., yesterday, offered John Baldwin, the 16-year-old brown colt Plandu, by Hymar, to Mrs. Baldwin. It has not yet been accepted.

LUCKY BALDWIN'S PLANS.

The California Owner Will Race More of His Horses in the East.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 29.—The black and white cross of the Santa Anita stable has been for the last time on the track, taken up. For fifteen years K. L. Baldwin has sent a string of horses across the continent, but this year he has not taken one back, except for future events. It is the intention of Baldwin to maintain a small string on the California circuit, but he will hereafter sell his yearlings at public auction every year.

AN INFANT TRICK RIDER.

Probably the youngest trick rider in the world is Pauline F. Abrams, of Cincinnati, who is only one-half years old, but she has been in her father's store as often as Mr. Abrams, proprietor of a large bicycle manufacturing concern—that she has come to be an accomplished cyclist.

Pauline has a great fancy for playing around the saleroom and has always insisted upon riding one of the big machines whenever some one could spare time enough to help her and hold her on. Then to satisfy her desire to go, she pedaled about the aisles, gliding in and out of visitors' way and turning sharp corners until she became very expert. From then on it was easy to teach her a number of tricks that would be difficult for the average rider.

RUHLIN AND TUT RYAN READY FOR THE WORD

THOSE TWO HEAVYWEIGHTS TO MEET IN THE PRIZE RING THIS WEEK.

TOMMY RYAN AND STIFT.

ARE THE LADY BICYCLE RIDERS IN TO-NIGHT'S BIG BI-CYCLE RACE

IN THE GRAND COLISEUM.

They Will Come Together for Welter-weight Honors at Chicago To-Morrow Night.

The Track Perhaps the Best Ever Constructed for a Contest of This Character.

This promises to be a great week for the pugilists.

At New Orleans Wednesday there is to be a revival of the game of fistfights.

On that night Gus Rubin, called in the East Billy Madden's wonder, and known in the West as the Akron (O.) giant, will meet Tut Ryan, the Australian, who arrived in this country a few weeks ago.

Records and the number of races the foreign riders have taken part in during the past few years have been published in these columns during the past week.

Miss Glaw and Miss Williams, Miss Shaw and Miss LaTour were seen upon the track Saturday evening and rode several miles without a check or a stop.

The track is perfectly smooth and it is without doubt the best track ever constructed in this country.

"My dealings with Mr. Croker were most profitable to me," said him $41,500 and received $20,000. "The first year of our partnership was a success, and the second a failure. We divided that year $8,000. The second year of our partnership the price of thoroughbreds had again declined and we did not profit.

"The third year I met Mr. Croker in England. He said the English must have a great interest in American thoroughbred interests. My ambition now is to win an English Derby with a colt of my own breeding and bred on my English farm.

"I am now in the market for the breeding of my horse Dobbin with my great mare Yorkville Belle. I would like to sell you Yorkville Belle, but I have no time to catch a thief if he gets a little start."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"We went out at the Maxwell House at dinner to-night and we will talk the matter over, said he.

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"The first year of our partnership was a success, and the second a failure. We divided that year $8,000. The second year of our partnership the price of thoroughbreds had again declined and we did not profit.

"The third year I met Mr. Croker in England. He said the English must have a great interest in American thoroughbred interests. My ambition now is to win an English Derby with a colt of my own breeding and bred on my English farm.

"I am now in the market for the breeding of my horse Dobbin with my great mare Yorkville Belle. I would like to sell you Yorkville Belle, but I have no time to catch a thief if he gets a little start."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"We went out at the Maxwell House at dinner to-night and we will talk the matter over, said he.

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"The first year of our partnership was a success, and the second a failure. We divided that year $8,000. The second year of our partnership the price of thoroughbreds had again declined and we did not profit.

"The third year I met Mr. Croker in England. He said the English must have a great interest in American thoroughbred interests. My ambition now is to win an English Derby with a colt of my own breeding and bred on my English farm.

"I am now in the market for the breeding of my horse Dobbin with my great mare Yorkville Belle. I would like to sell you Yorkville Belle, but I have no time to catch a thief if he gets a little start."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"We went out at the Maxwell House at dinner to-night and we will talk the matter over, said he.

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"The first year of our partnership was a success, and the second a failure. We divided that year $8,000. The second year of our partnership the price of thoroughbreds had again declined and we did not profit.

"The third year I met Mr. Croker in England. He said the English must have a great interest in American thoroughbred interests. My ambition now is to win an English Derby with a colt of my own breeding and bred on my English farm.

"I am now in the market for the breeding of my horse Dobbin with my great mare Yorkville Belle. I would like to sell you Yorkville Belle, but I have no time to catch a thief if he gets a little start."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"We went out at the Maxwell House at dinner to-night and we will talk the matter over, said he.

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"The first year of our partnership was a success, and the second a failure. We divided that year $8,000. The second year of our partnership the price of thoroughbreds had again declined and we did not profit.

"The third year I met Mr. Croker in England. He said the English must have a great interest in American thoroughbred interests. My ambition now is to win an English Derby with a colt of my own breeding and bred on my English farm.

"I am now in the market for the breeding of my horse Dobbin with my great mare Yorkville Belle. I would like to sell you Yorkville Belle, but I have no time to catch a thief if he gets a little start."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"We went out at the Maxwell House at dinner to-night and we will talk the matter over, said he.

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"The first year of our partnership was a success, and the second a failure. We divided that year $8,000. The second year of our partnership the price of thoroughbreds had again declined and we did not profit.

"The third year I met Mr. Croker in England. He said the English must have a great interest in American thoroughbred interests. My ambition now is to win an English Derby with a colt of my own breeding and bred on my English farm.

"I am now in the market for the breeding of my horse Dobbin with my great mare Yorkville Belle. I would like to sell you Yorkville Belle, but I have no time to catch a thief if he gets a little start."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"We went out at the Maxwell House at dinner to-night and we will talk the matter over, said he.

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

"$25,000. Mr. Croker."

"The first year of our partnership was a success, and the second a failure. We divided that year $8,000. The second year of our partnership the price of thoroughbreds had again declined and we did not profit.

"The third year I met Mr. Croker in England. He said the English must have a great interest in American thoroughbred interests. My ambition now is to win an English Derby with a colt of my own breeding and bred on my English farm.

"I am now in the market for the breeding of my horse Dobbin with my great mare Yorkville Belle. I would like to sell you Yorkville Belle, but I have no time to catch a thief if he gets a little start."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"This year I can have it, Mr. Croker."

"What's your figure, General?" I replied.

GRAPPLING FOR THE BODY.

Mrs. Smith Must Have Been Paralyzed by Ice Water.

SWIFT CURRENT AND DARKNESS

BOATS LOWERED, BUT THE DROWNED WOMAN DID NOT COME TO THE SURFACE.

SAW HER DOOM AND SHRIEKED.

The Stern of the Ferryboat Was in the Stream and the Current Gave the Body a Sudden Outshoot.

Men armed with hooks and grappling irons worked to drag the body around the place where the body of Mrs. Martha Smith, of Granite City, Ill., disappeared in the Mississippi Sunday evening.

Mrs. Smith spent the day with her daughter, Mrs. Kelley, at 1815 North Tenth street, and started for home immediately after dinner. With her were Frank Schultz, 39 Montgomery street, her son John, and his Rose Lake, also of Granite City, when the little party reached the ferry landing, foot of North Market street, the boat was getting under way for a return to the Illinois side. The bow had gone out, but the stern was close against the landing when Mrs. Smith ran on the forward deck, signaling the party to come on, she aged lady put out her foot to step upon the boat. At that instant the boat caught the current, and swinging about sharply, the stern cleared the pier.

Mrs. Smith saw the danger too late to recover her equilibrium. With a cry she plunged into the water before the eyes of a dozen helpless spectators.

The ferryboat was stopped and a small boat lowered, while four or five skiffs shot out from the shore. The current of the Mississippi is strong and swift at the foot of North Market street. Darkness had fallen over the river. The searchers were unable to find the body.

Those who watched from the ferry landing say that Mrs. Smith did not come to the surface a second time. They believe she fainted and her body was carried into midstream.

She was 54 years old and very prominent in church and charity circles in the little Illinois town, where she made her home.

BOYS' BLUE CHINCHILLA REEFER.

$4.50—for boys of 3 to 8 years, sailor collar, wide mohair braid.

$4.50—Sizes 8 to 16 years; velvet collar, wool-lined.

BOYS' OVERCOATS,
BOYS' ULSTERS,
For sale at very low prices.

A FOOT BALL FREE with every Reefer or Overcoat sold.

HILLS & AVERILL,
Broadway and Pine.

WHEAT OF NEW SOUTH WALES.

SYDNEY, New South Wales, Nov. 29.—An unofficial estimate places the wheat bushels, and it is anticipated that the exportable surplus of wheat from Australasia will be 5,000,000 bushels.

CONFERENCE AT THE MOSQUE.

FOR MAUDE LEWIS PARDON.
Former Members of the Legislature Sign Petitions to the Governor.

John P. Tracey Comes to Town and Sees Filley.

OLD MAN'S DANGER SIGNAL.
SAYS HE HAS NO FEAR BUT THE PARTY WILL INDOSE HIS ACTION.

WAR ON THE TAX-DODGERS.

That's What He Terms His Campaign and Says the Weak Point to Attack Is That of Pie Distribution.

"ST. PAUL TIP" SLIPPED OFF.
Policeman Hunt's Murderer Left Memphis Before Smith Got There.

Chief of Police Harrigan received a long letter Monday from Detective Smith in Memphis, searching for George Williams, alias Little, alias "St. Paul Tip," wanted here for the murder of Policeman Hunt.

Smith believes that Williams fled from Memphis for his safety, and is now at large. Smith will remain in Memphis a few days to find a clue to the fugitive.

FARMER MOEHR'S EAR MUFFS

They Prevent Him From Hearing a Street Car Gong.

Philip Moehr, a farmer from Sappington, Mo., came to town early Monday wrapped in a big overcoat and ear muffs. He was cranking Julia at Seventh street, and did not hear or see a Southwestern Electric car lumbering toward him. The muffs did not stop Moehr in time to stop the car.

Moehr was picked up near the curb with two broken legs, and was brought to several bruised about the body. Dr. Newcomb dressed his injuries and he went home.

VISITORS FROM MOBILE.

Medical Men Who Fought Yellow Fever Taking a Rest.

Dr. Rhett Goode, Health Officer, and Dr. R. H. Scales, Quarantine Officer, of Mobile, Ala., are at the Planters' Hotel.

Whereas we believe the country has best prospects for medical men in Mobile, and that said articles are un-Republican, untrue and in no way calculated to assist the cause of Republicanism, we do not publish them.

Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas Mr. Filley for the high position he holds.

Resolved, That the Central League Club heartily approves the action of the members of the State Republican Committee in denouncing as scandalous and un-American said articles.

Whereas